- 4(i) Any person whose name appears in the electoral rolls and is not disqualified under section 32(3) of the Act, may be nominated as a candidate for election to the Haryana Veterinary Council.
- (2) Such nomination shall be made by means of a nomination paper in form A which shall be supplied by the Returning Officer to the Elector who may apply for the same.
- (3) Each nomination paper shall be subscribed by one elector as proposer and the other as seconder. Provided that no elector shall subscribe more nomination papers than the seats allotted to his electorate :

Provided further that if more than prescribed number of nomination papers are subscribed by the same elector, in instalments, the prescribed number of nomination papers first received by the Returning Officer.

Shall, if otherwise in order, be held valid and if more than the prescribed number of nomination papers signed by the same elector be received simultaneously by the Returning Officer, the prescribed number of nominations made in order of the dates shall be accepted and the remaining nominations shall be rejected. In case all the nomination papers so received are of the same date then all the nominations shall be invalid.

(4) On receipt of each nomination paper the Returning Officers shall forthwith endorse thereon the date and hour of receipt.

5.(1) Nomination papers not received by the Returning Officer at his office address before noon on the last day appointed by the Returning Officer in this behalf, shall be rejected.

(2) The candidates and their proposers and seconders may send the office of the Returning Officer on the date and hour notified under sub-rule(4) of rule 3 and the Returning Officer shall allow them to examine the nomination papers of all candidates which have been received by him as aforesaid.

(3) The Returning Officer shall then Scrutinize the nomination papers and may either of his own motion or on an objection made by any person decide all questions which may arise as to the validity of any nomination and his decision on such question shall be final.

6.(1) If the number of the nominated candidates who stand for selection does not exceed the number of members to be elected under that clause, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare such candidates to be elected.

(2) If the number of such candidate exceeds the number of members to be so elected, the Returning Officer, shall forthwith publish their names and addresses in the official Gazette and shall further cause their names to be entered in voting papers in Form B.

(3) Any nominated candidate may withdraw his candidature by sending to the Returning Officer a written and signed withdrawal not later than fourteen clear days before the date appointed for the scrutiny and counting of votes and it shall not be permissible for him subsequently to cancel such withdrawal.

(4) On receiving notice of such withdrawal the Returning Officer shall publish the fact of such withdrawal in the Official Gazette.

(5) On or before the date as may be appointed by the Returning Officer he shall send by registered post to each elector a voting paper in Form C along with declaration in Form F duly signed by the Returning Officer:

Provided that such a voting paper shall be supplied to any such elector on his applying to the Returning Officer for the same at any time before the date appointed for the counting of votes and no election shall be invalidated by reason of the non-receipt by an elector of his voting paper.

7. (1) Every elector desirous of recording his vote shall send his voting paper by registered post to the Returning Officer after recording his vote thereon, first putting the same in a small cover duly addressed in the manner in Form D and thereafter putting the small cover in a larger cover addressed in the manner as in form E :

- (a) if the deceased had during his/her life time made a valid declaration with regard to its payment;
 - (i) to his widow or widows or husband, as the case may be, and
 - (ii) to his child or children if there be more than one in such proportional as the deceased may have declared it to be payable ;

(b) if the deceased had during his/her life made no valid declaration with regard to its payment ;—

1. (i) One moiety to the widow, or widows of the deceased in equal shares or the husband of the deceased, as the case may be, and
(ii) the other moiety to his child or children if there be more than one in equal shares ; or
2. (i) to the widow or widows of the deceased in equal shares or to the husband, as the case may be, if the deceased left no child: and
(ii) to the child/children in equal shares if the deceased left no widow or husband, as the case may be; and (1) to his legal heirs in all other cases.

Explanation.—(1) For the purpose of sub-rule (1) Subscriber's posthumous child shall be considered to be a member of his family at the time of his death and if born after shall be treated in the same way as a surviving child born before the subscriber's death.

(2) Subject to the provisions of rule 7 when subscriber ceases to be a servant of the Haryana Veterinary Council the amount in the credit of his account in column 6 of the contributory provident fund ledger plus interest accrued to date shall be withdrawn and paid to him:

Provided that—(a) if he is transferred otherwise than temporarily to the service of another local body which maintains a contributory provident fund or when having been transferred temporarily from the service of another local body, he reverts to such other local body: and

(b) if he is transferred temporarily to the service of another local body the amount shown to the credit of his account in column 6 of the contributory provident fund ledger shall not be withdrawn but shall remain to the credit on his account.

(3) Notwithstanding any thing contained in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) no amount shall be withdrawn for payment to a subscriber or his heirs under the provision of these sub-rules unless such payment can be made immediately:

Provided that if such payment cannot be made within one year, if the amount at the credit of the subscriber's contributory provident fund account is rupees ten or less, or within three years if such amount is more than ten rupees the Haryana Veterinary Council shall withdraw such amount and credit it to the current accounts of its own.

(4) When an account is closed under provisions of this rule a line shall be drawn in red ink across the page below the last entry in the Contributory provident fund ledger account and the number and date of the Voucher with which the amount at the credit of the account is deposited in the savings bank shall be recorded below this red ink.

11. Recovery of arrears.—Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 10 of the contributory provident fund rules, if any sum is due from a subscriber to the Haryana Veterinary council at the time when the account is closed the said council may deduct the amount of such sum before making the payment under rule 10.
