Application of Act.

2.—(1) This Act applies, in the first instance, to the birds and animals specified in the Schedule, when in their wild state.

(2) The ²[Provincial Government] may, by notification in the ³[official Gazette], apply the provisions of this Act to any kind of wild bird or animal, other than those specified in the Schedule, which, in its opinion, it is desirable to protect or preserve.

Close time.

3. The ²[Provincial Government] may, by notification in the ³[official Gazette], declare the whole year or any part thereof to be a close time throughout the whole or any part of its territories for any kind of wild bird or animal to which this Act applies, or for female or immature wild birds or animals of such kind; and, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, during such close time, and within the areas specified in such notification, it shall be unlawful—

(a) to capture any such bird or animal, or to kill any such bird or animal which has not been captured before the commencement of such close time;

(b) to sell or buy, or offer to sell or buy, or to possess, any such bird or animal which has not been captured or killed before the commencement of such close time, or the flesh thereof;

(c) if any plumage has been taken from any such bird captured or killed during such close time, to sell or buy, or to offer to sell or buy, or to possess, such plumage.

Penalties.

4.—(1) Whoever does or attempts to do, any act in contravention of section 3, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

(2) Whoever, having already been convicted of an offence under this section, is again convicted thereunder shall, on every subsequent conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with both.

¹Subs. by the Central Laws (Statute Reform) Ordinance, 1960 (21 of 1960), s. 3 and 2nd Sch., (with effect from the 14th October, 1955), for the original sub-section (2) as amended by A. O., 1949, and the Federal Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1951 (26 of 1951), s. 8.

²Subs. by A. O., 1937, for "L. G.".

³Subs. ibid., for "local official Gazette".

5.—(1) When a person is found guilty of an offence punishable under this Act, any bird or animal captured, or the flesh thereof, shall be confiscated.

(2) Such confiscation shall be subject to the provisions provided by section 6.

6. No Court shall try any offence under this Act, if the offence is committed by a person in the second class of the Schedule.

7. Where the provisions of this Act apply to any person, it may grant to any person, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification, to do any act which is prohibited by this Act.

8. Nothing in this Act shall apply to the capture or killing of any wild bird or animal by a person in the course of his lawful occupation.
