(1) It shall be the duty of the Secretary to place before the Disciplinary Committee all facts brought to his knowledge which are relevant for the purpose of any enquiry by the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) The Disciplinary Committee shall have the power to regulate its procedure in such manner as it considers necessary and during the course of enquiry, may examine witnesses on oath and receive evidences on affidavits and any other oral or documentary evidence, exercising its powers as provided in Sub-section (8) of Section 21.

(3) The Disciplinary Committee shall give the complainant and respondent a notice of the meeting at which the case shall be considered by the Committee.

(4) Such complainant and respondent may be allowed to defend themselves before the Disciplinary Committee either in person or through a legal practitioner or any other member of the Institute.

(5) Where, in the course of a disciplinary enquiry, a change occurs in the composition of the Disciplinary Committee, unless any of the parties to such enquiry makes a demand within fifteen days of receipt of a notice of a meeting of such Disciplinary Committee, that the enquiry be made de novo report of the Disciplinary Committee shall be called in question on the ground that any member of the Disciplinary Committee did not possess sufficient knowledge of the facts relating to such inquiry.

(6) The Disciplinary Committee shall after investigation report the result of its enquiry to the Council for its consideration.

19. Procedure in a hearing before the Council.-

(1) The Council shall consider the report of the Disciplinary Committee and if in its opinion, a further enquiry is necessary, may cause such further enquiry to be made and a further report submitted by the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) After considering such report or further report of the Disciplinary Committee, as the case may be, where the Council finds that the respondent is not guilty of any professional or other misconduct, it shall record its findings accordingly and direct that the proceedings shall be filed or the complaint shall be dismissed as the case may be.

(3) After considering such report or further report of the Disciplinary Committee, as the case may be, where the Council finds that the respondent has been guilty of a professional or other misconduct, it shall record its findings accordingly and shall proceed in the manner as laid down in the succeeding sub-regulations.

(4) Where the finding is that the member of the Institute has been guilty of a professional or other misconduct, the Council shall afford to the member an opportunity of being heard before orders are passed against him in the case. The Council after hearing the respondent, if he appears in person or after considering the representations, if any, made by him, pass such orders as it may think fit, as provided under Sub-section (4) of Section 21.

(5) The orders passed by the Council shall be communicated to the complainant and the respondent.

- (b) has passed the Foundation examination of the Institute or is eligible for exemption therefrom in accordance with these regulations.

Provided that persons whose registration as students with the dissolved company or with the Institute under the earlier regulations is current immediately prior to the commencement of these regulations, shall on payment of arrears of annual subscription, if any, due from them, be registered as students under these regulations without the payment of any student registration fee for the unexpired portion of the period of five years registered by the dissolved company or the Institute under the earlier regulations, as the case may be.

(2) A person applying for registration shall obtain an identity card and also give an undertaking that he shall, as a registered student, conduct himself in a manner befitting the ideals and standards of the profession of Company Secretaries generally and as specified by the Council from time to time and shall abide by such bye-laws or other standing orders as may be framed by the Council and made applicable to him from time to time.

(2A) A person who has appeared or enrolled himself for appearing in the degree examination in any discipline other than Fine Arts or an examination recognised by the Central Government as equivalent thereto may be provisionally enrolled for undergoing coaching for the Executive Programme.

Provided that the provisional enrolment for undergoing coaching for the Executive Programme shall be confirmed after satisfactory proof of having passed the aforesaid examination has been furnished by him to the Secretary within a period of six months from the date of provisional enrolment ;

Provided further that if such a person fails to produce such proof within the aforesaid period, his provisional enrolment shall be cancelled and no tuition or any other fee paid by him shall be refunded and no credit shall be given for the coaching undergone by him]

(3) [**]

(4) Every person whose application for registration is not accepted by the Secretary shall be entitled to a refund of the fee paid by him, subject to deduction of such administrative charges as the Council may from time to time determine.

21. Registration as a student and time limit for completing examinations

(1) Registration period: Every person applying to become a registered student shall be registered in accordance with these regulations for a period of five years from the month in which his application, complete in all respect, is accepted by the Secretary for registration.

(2) Time limit for completing examinations: A registered student shall be required to complete the Intermediate examination [or Executive Programme examination] and Final examinations or [Professional Programme examinations] within the registration period.

(3) Termination of registration: The registration of a student shall terminate on the expiry of five years or at the end of the year in which the student has completed the Final Examination or Professional Programme Examination whichever is earlier.

Provided that the Council may, subject to such guidelines as may be laid down in this behalf, extend the registration period of a student beyond five years.

22. Registration de novo

A person whose registration has been cancelled under sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 21 or Regulation 27 may, within two years of cancellation of his former registration, apply with registration fee [postal tuition fee, service charge and other fee, if any], as provided under Regulation 24 in the appropriate form to become a registered student de novo, and on his application being accepted by the Secretary, he shall be deemed for all purposes to have been admitted as a fresh registered student except that he shall be entitled to claim exemption, without payment of any exemption fee, from individual subjects or groups of the Intermediate and/or Final examination, previously secured by him under his former registration with the dissolved company or the Institute, as the case may be.

Provided that if a person applies after two years of the expiry of his former registration but in any case within five years thereof, the Council may, subject to such guidelines as may be laid down in this behalf, allow him to be registered de novo subject to the payment of [registration fee, postal tuition fee, service charges, other fee, if any, as provided under Regulation 24] and exemption fee for the individual subjects or groups of the Intermediate or Executive Programme and Final examinations or Professional Programme Examination in which he secured exemption during his former registration.

23. Status of registered students

The registration of a person as a student shall not confer on such person any rights of a member nor entitle him to claim any form of membership of the Institute of its Regional Council or Chapter, as the case may be.

Provided that such student may be permitted to borrow books from the library of the Institute, Regional Council or Chapter or participate in the activities of the Institute, its Regional Council or Chapter, as the case may be subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the Council,

Regional Council or Chapter, as the case may be.

(2) A candidate who has withdrawn his nomination shall not be entitled to rescind his withdrawal.

70. Intimation of final list of nominations to candidates and voters

(1) The Returning Officer shall omit from the list of valid nominations the names of candidates who have withdrawn their nominations and send the final list of contesting candidates (hereinafter referred to as "contesting candidates") in respect of each regional constituency to all the candidates of the constituency by registered post and to the voters of that constituency by recorded delivery post.

(2) The list shall also be accompanied by such particulars of all contesting candidates of that constituency as compiled, prepared and presented by the Returning Officer from the particulars to the extent supplied by the candidates under sub-regulations (3), (4) and (5) of Regulation 65.

(3) In representing the particulars required to accompany the list under sub-regulation (2) hereof, the Returning Officer shall,-

- (a) make use of the particulars furnished by the candidates under sub-regulations (3), (4) and (5) of Regulation 65.
- (b) not include anything, whether or not contained in the particulars furnished by the candidate as aforesaid except to the extent the particulars conform to the requirements to sub-regulations (2), (3), (4) and (5) of Regulation 65; and
- (c) correct any manifest errors that may have come to his notice.

(4) The particulars required to accompany the final list of nominations, as aforesaid shall prominently indicate that they have been compiled, prepared and presented on the basis of particulars furnished by the candidates under sub-regulations (2), (3) (4) and (5) of Regulation 65 and that no responsibility is accepted by the Returning Officer as to the correctness of the said particulars.

71. Death or cessation of membership of a candidate

If a contesting candidate dies or otherwise ceases to be a member before the date of declaration of the results of election, the election for the respective regional constituency shall be conducted amongst the remaining candidates belonging to the regional constituency and no fresh proceedings with reference to the election of members in that regional constituency shall be commenced.

72. Candidates deemed to be elected if their number is equal to or less than the number of members to be elected

(1) Where the number of contesting candidates from any regional constituency is equal to or less than the number of persons to be elected from that constituency or becomes equal to or less than the number of persons to be elected from that constituency by reasons of the death or cessation of membership of one or more candidates before the date of declaration of the results of election, the remaining candidates shall be deemed to be elected and the Returning Officer shall declare all such candidates as duly elected.

(2) Where the number of candidates elected under sub-regulation (1) from a regional constituency is less than the number of persons to be elected from the regional constituency, the Council may, at the first meeting held immediately following the election or thereafter, recommend a panel of Fellow members from that regional constituency for nomination by the Central Government under Section 11 of the Act.

73. System of election and manner of voting

(1) The elections to the Council shall be held in accordance with the system of proportional representation by means of a single transferable vote.

(2) Except as otherwise provided, at every election where a poll is taken, vote shall be given by secret ballot and every voter in any election, shall cast his vote personally in the booth provided for the purpose, unless a voter is allowed in respect of any election to cast his vote by post as hereinafter provided.

74. Poling booths

The Council shall specify for each election the number of votes necessary for setting up of a polling booth and the Returning Officer shall accordingly set up such number of polling booths as required provided the voters professional addresses given in the list of members eligible to vote were not beyond a radius of sixteen kilometers from the polling booth allotted.

75. Polling Officer

The Returning Officer shall appoint a Polling Officer for each polling booth who would always be a government official and may also appoint such other person(s) as he may deem necessary to assist the Polling Officer. The Polling Officer shall in addition to performing any other duties imposed upon him by these regulations be in general incharge of all arrangements at the polling booth and generally for the preservation of peace and order at or in the vicinity of the polling booth.

76. Secret chamber and ballot paper

There shall be a secret chamber or chambers in each polling booth and such chamber shall be so arranged that where a voter records his vote on the ballot paper, no other person(s) can see how he has voted.

77. Identification of voters

(1) Every person claiming to be a voter shall be required to sign against his name in the copy of the list of members eligible to vote as provided by the Returning Officer and his signature shall be verified by the Polling Officer with the specimen signature provided by the Returning Officer

(2) At any time before a ballot paper is delivered to a person claiming to be a voter, the Polling Officer may, of his own accord, if he has reason to doubt the identity of the person or his right to vote at the polling booth, or if his specimen signature is not available with the Polling Officer, and shall, if so required by a candidate or his authorized representative, satisfy himself in any manner as he may deem advisable as to his identity or his right to vote.

(3) If the Polling Officer is not satisfied as to the identity of the person claiming to be a voter, he may issued a ballot paper to such person(s) but instead of getting the ballot paper inserted in the ballot box, he shall place the same in a separate sealed cover superscribed as "Tendered Ballot" and send it to the Returning Officer, along with a letter from the person concerned, for the decision of the Returning Officer which shall be final and conclusive.

(4) In deciding the right of a person to obtain a ballot paper under this regulation the Polling Officer at any polling booth may interpret any entry in the list of members eligible to vote so as to overlook merely clerical or printing error, provided that he is satisfied that such person is identical with the voter to whom such entry relates.

78. Records to be kept by Polling Officer

The Polling Officer shall at the time of delivery of the ballot paper place against the name of the voter in the list of members eligible to vote a mark to denote that the voter has received a ballot paper. He shall also keep a record of the ballot papers supplied to the voters in such manner as the Returning Officer may direct.

79. Manner of recording of votes after receipt of ballot paper

(1) On receiving the ballot paper, the voter shall forthwith proceed into the secret chamber set apart for the purpose and shall record his votes on the ballot paper in the manner specified in Regulation 86. He shall thereafter fold the ballot paper, leave the secret chamber and insert the ballot paper in the ballot box provided for the purpose in the presence of the Polling Officer.

(2) The ballot box should be so constructed that a ballot paper can be inserted there into during the polling but cannot be withdrawn therefrom without the box being unlocked and/or the seals being broken.

80. Return of ballot paper by a voter

(1) If a voter after obtaining a ballot paper for the purpose of recording his vote(s) decides not to use the same, he shall return the ballot paper to the Polling Officer and the ballot paper as returned shall then be marked as "Cancelled – Returned" and kept in a separate envelope set apart for the purpose and a record shall be kept by the Polling Officer of all such ballot paper.

(2) If any ballot paper which has been issued to a voter for the purpose of recording his vote, is found left by the voter at the secret chamber, at the end of the day when the Polling Officer inspects the secret chamber whether the vote has been recorded in it or not, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulation (1) as if it had been returned to the Polling Officer.

81. Procedure at the pooling booth

(1) A polling booth shall be kept open on the day or days appointed for taking of poll from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. unless otherwise directed by the Council.

(2) If the polling at any polling booth cannot take place on the day or days appointed for the purpose or is Interrupted or obstructed by any sufficient cause or the ballot box used at a booth is tampered with or is accidentally or deliberately destroyed, lost or damaged, the Returning Officer or the Polling Officer, as the case may be, may adjourn the polling to a subsequent date or the Returning Officer may declare the polling at the booth as void and order a fresh polling.

(3) If a Polling is adjourned or declared void under sub-regulation (2), the Returning Officer shall, as soon as possible, appoint the place where the polling shall be subsequently conducted and the time, date or dates, as the case may be, for the said polling.

(4) The place, date or dates and the time of polling, appointed under sub-regulation (3), shall be notified individual to all the voters affected and, if possible, in the Journal.

(5) The Returning Officer shall not proceed to count the votes cast at the election until the polling at all the polling booths in the constituency has been completed.

(6) The Polling Officer shall close the polling booth at the end of the day, or if the polling is for more than one day, at the end of each day, at the hour appointed under sub-regulation (1), and no voter shall be admitted thereto after that hour:

Provided that any voter present in the polling booth before it is closed, shall be entitled to cast his vote.

(7) The Polling Officer shall, as soon as practicable, after the close of the polling or after its close on each day, if the polling is for more than one day, in the presence of any candidate(s) or their authorised representatives who may be present, seal the ballot box with his own seal and the seals of such candidates or authorised representatives as may desire to affix their seals thereon.

(8) The Polling Officer shall also make into separate packets:

- (i) the unused ballot papers;
- (ii) the returned and cancelled ballot papers;
- (iii) the signed copy of the list of members eligible to vote; and
- (iv) any other paper directed by the Returning Officer to be kept in a sealed cover, and seal each such packet with his own seal and the seals of such candidates or authorized representatives as may desire to affix the seals thereon. He shall arrange for the safe custody of the ballot box and such packets.

(9) Where the polling is arranged to take place for more than one day, just before the polling booth is opened to the voters on the following day, the Polling Officer shall, in the presence of any candidate(s) or their authorised representatives who may be present, remove the seal or seals affixed in accordance with sub-regulations (7) and (8), after the seals are examined by him and by the candidate(s) or authorised representatives, for use during the course of that day.

(10) The ballot box and packets, referred to earlier shall be accompanied by an account of ballot papers showing the total number of ballot papers received, issued and un-used, returned, as also the number of ballot papers which should be found in the ballot box and packets. This account shall be forwarded to the Returning Officer.

82. Transport of ballot papers and their custody

The Returning Officer and the Polling Officer shall make adequate arrangements for safe custody of the ballot papers and for safe transport to the headquarters of the Institute of all packets or boxes and other papers referred to in Regulation 81. The Returning Officer shall also be responsible for their safe custody until the commencement of counting of votes.

83. Voting by members employed on duty at polling booths

The Polling Officers, the persons appointed by the Returning Officer to assist the Polling Officer, or the authorised representatives referred to in Regulation 87D who are voters for any constituency and who by reason of their being on duty at a polling booth, are unable to be present and to vote at the polling booth where they are entitled to vote, may send to the Returning Officer, so as to reach him at least thirty days before the date fixed for the poll at that constituency, an application for permission to vote at the polling booth where they will be on duty. If the Returning Officer is satisfied that the claim is just, he may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, allow the application and permit the voter to vote at the polling booth where he will be on duty to act as Polling Officer or to assist the Polling Officer or as authorised representative of a candidate:

Provided that such permission shall not be granted to more than one authorised representative of a candidate in respect of each polling booth, such authorised representative being specially nominated for the purpose by the candidate himself.

84. Eligibility to vote by Post

(1) A member whose name is included in the list of members eligible to vote published under the provisions of Regulation 63 and whose name is not shown under any polling booth, shall notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, be entitled to vote by post.

(2) A member who is entitled to vote at a polling booth may be permitted at the discretion of the Returning Officer, to vote by post, if he is unable to exercise his vote at the polling booth allotted to him by reason of –

- (a) there being a permanent change in his address from the address published in the list of members eligible to vote to another village, town or city beyond a radius of sixteen kilometers;
- (b) his professional address being beyond a radius of sixteen kilometers from the polling booth allotted to him; or
- (c) his suffering from any permanent infirmity.

(3) In a case where even though there has been no permanent change in his professional address, a member has intimated to the Returning Officer that he would not be in a position to cast his vote at the polling booth allotted to him as he expects to be away from his professional address on the date or dates of polling, he may be permitted, at the discretion of the Returning Officer, to receive the ballot paper by post and allowed to cast the same at any polling booth; subject to such requirements as may be specified by the Council in this behalf.

(4) A member who is actually residing beyond a radius of sixteen kilometers from the polling booth allotted to him on the basis of his professional address may at the concession provided in sub-regulation (2) on the same terms and conditions.

(5) A member who is residing outside India shall notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter be eligible to vote by post provided that his overseas address is registered with the office of the Institute at least sixty days before the date of election. Such a member need not send an application under sub-regulation (6).

(6) An application in the appropriate form with proper verification of the contents of the application by the member concerned, should be sent to the Returning Officer by name so as to reach him at least sixty days before the date of polling, and an application not received within the time specified shall not be considered.

(7) A member who has been permitted to vote by post while sending the ballot paper to the Returning Officer shall send along with a declaration in the appropriate form specified for the purpose.

(8) Any misuse of the concession granted under this regulation or any mis-statement, false declaration or false verification in this behalf shall render the member concerned liable for disciplinary action under Regulation 87W.

(9) The Returning Officer shall postpone the conduct of poll at any polling booth for reasons to be recorded in writing.

85. Eligibility to vote at polling booth by a voter entitled to vote by post

A voter entitled to vote by post under Regulation 84 may, however, be allowed by the Returning Officer to vote in person at any particular polling booth to be specified by him within his regional constituency, provided he makes an application to that effect in writing duly addressed and forwards it to the Returning Officer by name by registered post so as to reach him at least forty-five days before the date of polling and an application not received within the time specified shall not be considered.

86. Admissible number of votes to each voter and method voting

Each voter shall have one vote only but he shall have as many preferences as there are candidates. The voter in order to cast his vote-

- (a) shall place on the ballot paper the number 1 (in Arabic or Roman numerals or in words) in the square opposite the name of the candidate whom he chooses for his first preference; and
- (b) may, in addition, place on his ballot paper the number 2 or the number 2 and 3 or number 2, 3 and 4 (in Arabic or Roman numerals or in words) and so on, in the squares opposite the names of the other candidates in the order of his preference.

87. Ballot paper

The ballot paper shall contain the names of all contesting candidates for the constituency in alphabetical order in English and shall bear the emblem of the Institute.

87A. Returning Officer to send ballot paper by post where applicable under Regulation 84

Not less than twenty-one days before the last date fixed for the receipt of ballot papers by post in the headquarters, the Returning Officer shall cause to be sent by recorded delivery post to each voter entitled or permitted to vote by post a ballot paper with instructions as to be manner in which the vote shall be recorded therein, an outer envelope for return of the ballot paper and an inner envelope to enclose the ballot paper specifying the date by which the ballot paper should reach the Returning Officer by name.

87B. Procedure for return of ballot papers by post

(1) Every voter referred to in sub-regulations (1), (2) or (5) of Regulation 84 shall record his vote personally in the ballot paper, fold and place it inside the inner envelope provided for that purpose, close the envelope by pasting and append his signature on the envelope at the place provided for that purpose.

(2) A voter is required to send a signed declaration in the appropriate form of having complied with the sub-regulation (1) personally.

(3) The voter shall place the closed and signed inner envelope in the outer envelope prepared for sending by ordinary post close and paste the outer envelope, put the membership number, name and signature on it on the space provided for that purpose, and post it, so as to reach the Returning Officer not later than the last date specified for receipt of ballot papers from voters by post under Regulation 59.

(4) A voter may, at his option forward the ballot paper by registered post.

87C. Issue of undelivered and fresh ballot paper

Where a ballot paper and the accompanying material sent by post under Regulation 87A, are damaged in transit or lost or for any reason returned undelivered or not received by a voter, the Returning Officer may, if he is satisfied with the reasons given for such damaged, loss return or non-receipt reissue them by registered post or deliver them or cause them to be delivered to the voter, as the case be, on his applying for the same in writing.

87D. Presence of candidates or their authorised representatives at a polling booth or at the place of counting of votes

A contesting candidate shall be entitled to be presents in presence of person or to be represented by another member duly authorised by him in writing at any polling booth in the relevant regional constituency or the place of the counting of the votes, provided that a letter of authority is deposited with the Polling Officer or the Returning Officer before the time fixed for polling or for counting of Votes, as the case may be, and that officer is satisfied as to the genuineness of the letter of authority and the identity of the authorised representative.

87E. Appointment of assistants and scrutineers

(1) The Returning Officer may appoint such persons as he thinks fit to assist him for any purpose in the conduct of election.

(2) The Returning Officer may also appoint a panel of two or more persons who are neither members of the council nor candidates for election, to act as scrutineers of the ballot papers and to assist him generally in the counting of votes.

87F. Intimation of place, time and date for counting of votes

The Returning Officer shall at least fifteen days before date or the first of the dates of polling, intimate in writing to all contesting candidates the date and time at which the counting of votes shall commence at the headquarters of the Institute.

87H. Counting of votes received by post

(1) On the date and at the time and place intimated under Regulation 87F, the Returning Officer shall, for the purpose of counting of votes in respect of a regional constituency, first deal with the postal ballot papers relating to that constituency in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) The Returning Officer shall allow the candidates or their authorized representatives present at the counting a reasonable opportunity to inspect the cover containing the ballot papers received by post for satisfying themselves that they are in order but shall not allow them to handle those covers.

(3) No covers containing a postal ballot paper received by the Returning Officer after the expiry of the time fixed in that behalf or received by him from a voter whose name has been removed from the register of members on or before the date of poll shall be opened and no vote contained in any such cover shall be counted.

(4) The other covers shall then be taken up by the Returning Officer one by one as each outer cover is taken up, the Returning Officer shall first scrutinise the signature of the voter on that cover in the space provided for that purpose.

(5) No outer cover on which the signature of the voter is not appended shall be opened and no vote contained in any such cover shall be counted.

(6) At each outer cover which contains the signature of the voter is opened, the Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that the declaration contained therein has been duly made and signed by the voter.

(7) If the said declaration by the voter is not found or has not been duly made or signed by him or is otherwise substantially defective or any paper other than the inner cover and the ballot paper is not found, the Returning Officer shall reject his ballot papers and make appropriate endorsements of the outer and inner covers and on the ballot paper if it is found without the inner cover.

(8) The inner cover of the ballot paper so endorsed shall be replaced in the outer cover and all such covers shall be kept in a separate packet which shall be sealed and on which the name of the regional constituency, the date of counting and a brief description of its contents shall be recorded.

(9) The inner covers not already dealt with under the foregoing provisions of this regulation shall then be opened one after the other and the Returning Officer shall take out the ballot paper from each cover and shall record the number thereof in a statement and shall make a separate packet of these ballot papers.

87-I Scrutiny and opening of ballot boxes

(1) The Returning Officer shall thereafter deal with the ballot papers contained in the ballot boxes in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) Before any ballot box is opened, the Returning Officer shall allow the candidates or their authorised representatives present at the counting, a reasonable opportunity to inspect the ballot boxes and packages received from the Polling Officers and the seals thereof for satisfying themselves that they are in order, but shall not allow them to handle those ballot boxes or packets.

(3) The Returning Officer shall be also satisfy himself that none of the ballot boxes is in fact tampered with and if he finds that any of the ballot boxes has been tampered with, shall not count the ballot papers contained in such box and shall keep the record of such ballot papers for the purpose of election petition, if any.

(4) The ballot boxes found to be in order shall be opened and the ballot papers shall be taken out from them and shall be counted and the number thereof recorded in a statement.

(5) The ballot papers received by post and kept in a packet referred to in sub-regulation (9) or Regulation 87H shall then be mixed with the ballot papers taken out of the ballot boxes and taken up for scrutiny so as to determine their validity or otherwise.

87J. Grounds for declaring ballot papers invalid

A ballot paper shall be invalid-

- (a) if a voter signs his name or writes any word or figure upon it (other than those permitted under Regulation 86) or makes any mark upon it by which the ballot paper becomes recognizable or by which the voter can be identified;
- (b) if it does not bear the emblem of the Institute;
- (c) if the number, 1 is not marked on it;
- (d) if the number 1 is set opposite the name of more than one candidate;
- (e) if the number 1 and some other numbers are put opposite the name of the same candidate;
- (f) if it is a spurious ballot paper for uncertainty; or
- (g) it is a spurious ballot paper or is so damaged or mutilated that its identity as a genuine ballot paper cannot be established.

87K. Arrangement of valid ballot papers in parcels

(1) The Returning Officer shall separate the ballot papers which he deems valid from those which he rejects endorsing on each of the latter the word "Rejected" and the ground of rejection.

(2) After rejecting the ballot papers which are invalid, the Returning Officer shall-

- (a) arrange the remaining ballot papers in parcels according to the first preference recorded for each candidate;
- (b) count and record the number of papers in each parcel and the total number; and
- (c) credit to each candidate the value of the papers in his parcel.

87L Ascertainment of quota

Every valid ballot paper shall be deemed to be of the value of one hundred, and the quota sufficient to secure the return of a candidate at the election shall be determined as follows:

- (a) add the values credited to all the candidates under clause (c) of sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 87k;
- (b) divide the total by a number which exceeds by one the number of vacancies to filled; and
- (c) add one to the quotient ignoring the remainder, if any, and the resulting number is the quota.

87M. General Instruction

In carrying out the provisions of Regulations 87N to 87R, the Returning Officer shall disregard all fractions and ignore all preferences recorded for candidates already elected or excluded from the poll.

87N. Candidates with quota elected

If at the end of any count or at the end of the transfer of any parcel or sub-parcel of an excluded candidate, the value of ballot papers credited to a candidate is equal to, or greater than the quota, the candidate shall be declared elected.

87O. Transfer of Surplus

(1) if at the end of any count the value of the ballot papers credited to a candidate is greater than the quota, the surplus shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions of this regulation to the continuing candidates indicated on the ballot papers of that candidate as being next in order of the elector's preference.

(2) If more than one candidate have a surplus, the largest surplus shall be dealt with first and the others in order of magnitude:

Provide that every surplus arising on the first count shall be dealt with before those arising on the second count and so on

(3) Where there are more surpluses than one to distribute and two or more surpluses are equal, regard shall be had to the original votes of each candidate and the candidate for whom most original votes are recorded shall have his surplus first distributed; and if the values of their original votes are equal, the Returning Officer shall decide by lot which candidate shall have his surplus first distributed.

(4) (a) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arises from original votes only. The Returning Officer shall examine all the papers in the parcel belonging to that candidate, divide the unexhausted papers into sub-parcels according to the next preference recorded thereon and make a separate sub-parcel of the exhausted papers.

(b) He shall ascertain the values of the papers in each sub-parcel and of all the unexhausted papers.

(c) If the value of the unexhausted papers is equal to or less than the surplus, he shall transfer all the unexhausted papers at the value at which they were received by the candidate whose surplus is being transferred.

(d) If the value of the unexhausted papers is greater than the surplus, he shall transfer the sub-parcels of unexhausted papers and the value at which each paper shall be transferred shall be ascertained by dividing the surplus by the total number of unexhausted papers .

(5) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arises from transferred as well as original votes, the Returning Officer shall re-examine all the papers in the Sub-parcel last transferred to the candidate, divide the unexhausted papers into sub-parcels according to the next preference recorded thereon, and then deal with the sub-parcels in the same manner as is provided in the case of sub-parcels referred to in sub-regulation (4).

(6) The papers transferred to each candidate shall be added in the form of a sub-parcel to the papers already belonging to such candidate.

(7) All papers in the parcel or sub-parcel of an elected candidate not transferred under this regulation shall be set apart as finally dealt with.

87P. Exclusion of candidates lowest on the poll

(1) If after all surpluses have been transferred as herein before provided, the number of candidates elected is less than the required number, the Returning Officer shall exclude from the poll the candidate lowest on the poll and shall distribute his unexhausted papers amongst the continuing candidate according to the next preference recorded thereon and any exhausted paper shall be set apart as finally dealt with.

(2) The papers containing original votes of an excluded candidate shall first be transferred, the transfer value of each paper being one hundred.

(3) The papers containing transferred votes of an excluded candidate shall then be transferred in the order of the transfers in which and at the value at which, he obtained them.

(4) Each of such transfer shall be deemed to be a separate transfer but not a separate count.

(5) If, as a result of the transfer of papers, the value of votes obtained by a candidate is equal to or greater than the quota the count the proceeding shall be completed but no further papers shall be transferred to him.

(6) The process directed by this rule shall be repeated on the successive exclusion one after another of the candidates lowest on the poll until such vacancy is filled either by the election of a candidate with the quota or as herein after provided.

(7) If at any time it becomes necessary to exclude a candidate and two or more candidates have the same value of votes and are the lowest on the poll regard shall be had to the original votes of each candidate and the candidate for whom fewest original votes are recorded shall be excluded and if the values of their original votes are equal the candidate with the smallest value at the earliest count at which these candidates had unequal values shall be excluded.

(8) If two or more candidates are lowest on the poll and each has the same value of votes at all counts, the Returning Officer shall decide by lot which candidate shall be excluded.

87Q. Filling the last vacancies

(1) When at the end of any count the number of continuing candidates is reduced to the number of vacancies remaining unfilled the continuing candidates shall be declared elected.

(2) When at the end of any count only one vacancy remains unfilled and the value of papers of some one candidate exceed the total value of the papers of all the continuing candidates together with any surplus not transferred that candidate shall be declared elected.

(3) When at the end of any count only one vacancy remains unfilled and there are only two continuing candidates and each of them has the same value of votes and no surplus remains capable of transfer, the Returning Officer shall decide by lot which of them shall be excluded; and after excluding him in the manner aforesaid, declare the other candidate to be elected.

87R. Provision for re-counts

(1) Any candidate or, in his absence his authorised representative may, at any time during the counting of the votes either before the commencement or after the completion of any transfer of votes (whether surplus or otherwise) request the Returning Officer to re-examine and re-count the papers of all or any candidates (not being papers set aside at any previous transfer as finally dealt with) and the Returning Officer shall forthwith re-examine and re-count the same accordingly.

(2) The Returning Officer may in his discretion re-count the votes either once or more than once in any case in which he is not satisfied as to the accuracy of any previous count:

Provided that nothing in this sub-regulation shall make it obligatory on the Returning Officer to re-count the same votes more than once.

87S. Declaration of results

The name of the candidates elected shall be declared on the date fixed for declaration of results and shall be communicated individually to all candidates who stood for election by registered post and shall also be notified in the Journal.

87T. Election not to be invalid due to accidental omission etc.

No election shall be deemed to be invalid merely by reason of any accidental irregularity or informality in the conduct of the election, including accidental omission to send or delay in sending the voting paper to a voter or the accidental non receipt of, delay in receipt of voting paper, by a voter.

87U. Decision of the Returning Officer to be final

The decision of the Returning Officer pertaining to conduct of election shall, subject to Regulation 87V, be final not only in respect of all matters concerning the interpretation of these regulations but also in respect of the procedures adopted and not specifically covered by these regulations.

87V. Dispute on election matters

(1) An application by any aggrieved candidate against the decision of the panel on the validity of nominations or the Returning Officer on the declaration of election results, or any other matter relating to or incidental thereto, which is material to the conduct of election shall be made to the Council within thirty days from the date of declaration of the results of an election and the Council shall refer the dispute to a Tribunal appointed by the Central Government under Sub-section (2) of Section 10.

(2) At the time of giving its decision, the Tribunal may pass such order as to costs as it may consider appropriate.

(3) If the Tribunal is satisfied that an application made under Sub-section (2) of Section 10 was frivolous or not founded on any valid ground, it may award costs to the Council.

87W. Disciplinary action against member in connection with the conduct of election

(1) A member shall be liable to disciplinary action by the Council if, in connection with an election to the Council of the Institute, he is found to have contravened the provisions of all or any of the clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f), of sub-regulation(2).

(2) A candidate can issue one circular letter giving positive aspects of his candidature including his qualifications and contributions to the profession. The circular issued in connection with an election to the Council shall conform to the following requirements or guidelines as may be issued by the Council in respect of the election in the interests of maintaining dignity in the election, namely:-

- (a) such circular must be sent by registered post by the candidate to the Secretary by name for information and record within ten days of its issue by him to voters;

- (b) the circular shall contain factual information regarding the candidate himself and shall not make any reference directly or indirectly, to any other candidate;
 - (c) the information which a candidate may furnish in circular regarding himself shall not differ in any material respect from the information furnished by the candidate to the Institute;
 - (d) a circular shall not contain any appeal to the voters on the basis of casts, or on communal, regional or sectional lines;
 - (e) the distribution of circular shall be restricted only to the members of the constituency concerned;
 - (f) a circular shall be issued by a candidate only after his nomination has been accepted.

Explanation: For the purpose of this sub-regulation, the term "Circular" does not include a personal letter addressed to an individual which happens to contain a mere request for Vote though if a similar letter were to be sent to a number of voters, it would amount to "circular".

(3) A member shall liable to disciplinary action by the Council, if he adopts one or more of the following practices with regard to the election to the Council, namely:-

- (a) bribery, that is to say, any gift, offer or promise of any gift or gratification to any person, by a candidate or any other person with his connivance with the object, directly or indirectly, of-
 - (i) inducing a member to stand or not to stand as a candidate for election
 - (ii) inducing a candidate to withdraw his candidature or rewarding such withdrawal; or
 - (iii) inducing a voter to vote or not to vote at an election, or as a reward for such act or omission.

Explanation: For the purpose of this sub-regulation, the term "gratification" is not restricted to pecuniary gratification or gratification estimable and all forms of employment for reward, but it does not include the payment of any expenses bona fide incurred at or for the purpose of any election;

- (b) undue influence, that is to say, any direct or indirect interference or attempt to interfere on the part of a candidate or of any other person, with his connivance with the free exercise of any electoral right;
- (c) the publication by a candidate or by any other person with his connivance, of any statement which is false or which he either believes to be false or does not believe it to be true, in relation to the personal character or conduct of any candidate, or in relation to the candidature or withdrawal of any candidate, being a statement reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of that candidate's election;
