

THE MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT (ADVANCE FOR THE PURCHASE OF CONVEYANCE) RULES, 1986

New Delhi, the 3rd January, 1986

THE MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT (ADVANCE FOR THE PURCHASE OF CONVEYANCE) RULES, 1986

(As amended upto 13th December, 2010)

1. Short title and commencement. – (1) These rules may be called the Members of Parliament (Advance for the Purchase of Conveyance) Rules, 1986.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Maximum amount of advance .-- (1) The maximum amount which may be advanced to a member for the purchase of conveyance ²(shall not exceed rupees four lakhs) or the actual price of the conveyance, which is intended to be purchased, whichever is less:

Provided that no advance shall be admissible when a conveyance has already been purchased and paid for in full:

Provided further that where such payment has been made in part, the amount of advance shall be limited to the balance to be paid as certified by the member.

(2) The amount of advance under sub-rule (1) shall be sanctioned in the name of the President and authenticated in accordance with the provisions of the Authentication (Orders and other Instruments) Rules, 1958.

3. Repayment of Advance. - (1) Recovery of the advance granted under rule 2, together with interest thereon, shall be made from the salary bill of the member concerned in not more than sixty equal monthly installments, which shall not extend beyond the tenure of his membership:

Provided that where the member receiving the advance so desires, the Chairman of the Council of States or the Speaker of the House of the People, as the case may be, may permit recovery of the advance to be made in lesser number of installments.

¹ Published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i) dated the 3rd January, 1986.

² Substituted by G.S.R. No.967(E), published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i) dated the 13th December, 2010.

Explanation. -- The amount of the advance to be recovered monthly shall be fixed in whole rupees, except in the case of last installment when the remaining balance including any fraction of a rupee shall be recovered.

(2) The recovery of advance shall commence with the first issue of salary after the advance is drawn.

(3) Simple interest at the rate fixed by the Central Government in relation to advance for purchase of conveyance by Government servants shall be charged on the said advance.

(4) Where a member ceases to be such a member before the full repayment of the advance, the outstanding balance, together with interest thereon, shall be paid to the Central Government immediately in one lump-sum.

4. Sale of Conveyance. -- (1) Except when a member ceases to be such a member, previous sanction of the Central Government shall be obtained for the sale by the member of the conveyance purchased with the aid of an advance, if such advance, together with the interest accrued thereon, has not been fully repaid.

(2) Where a member wishes to transfer the said conveyance to another member, he may be permitted under the orders of the Central Government, to transfer the liability attaching to that conveyance to the latter member provided that the member purchasing the conveyance records a declaration that he is aware that the conveyance transferred to him remains subject to the mortgage bond and that he is bound by its terms and provisions.

(3) In all cases where a conveyance is sold before the advance received for its purchase, together with interest thereon, has been fully repaid, the sale-proceeds must be applied, so far as may be necessary, towards the repayment of such outstanding balance:

Provided that when the conveyance is sold only in order that another conveyance may be purchased, the Central Government may permit the member to apply the sale proceeds towards such purchase, subject to the following conditions, namely :--

(a) the amount outstanding shall not be permitted to exceed the cost of the new conveyance;

(b) the amount outstanding shall continue to be repaid at the rate previously fixed; and

(c) the new conveyance shall also be insured and mortgaged to the Central Government.

5. Period within which negotiations for purchase of conveyance may be completed. – A member who draws an advance for the purchase of a conveyance shall complete his negotiations for the purchase of and pay finally for, the conveyance within one month of the date on which he draws the advance and failing such completion of negotiations and final payment, the full amount of the advance drawn, together with the interest thereon for one month, shall be refunded by the member to the Central Government.

6. Execution of agreement. -- (1) At the time of drawing the advance, the member shall execute an agreement in Form I and on completing the purchase, he shall further execute a mortgage bond in Form II hypothecating the conveyance to the Central Government as security for the advance.

(2) The cost price of the conveyance shall be entered in the schedule of specifications attached to the mortgage bond in Form II.

7. Certificate to the Pay and Accounts Officer. -- (1) When an advance is drawn, the sanctioning authority shall furnish to the Pay and Accounts Officers of the Council of States or, as the case may be, of the House of the People, a certificate that the Agreement in Form I has been signed by the member drawing the advance and that it has been found to be in order.

(2) The sanctioning authority shall see that the conveyance is purchased within one month from the date on which the advance is drawn and shall submit the mortgage bond, duly executed by the member, promptly to the Pay and Accounts Officer of the Council of States, or, as the case may be, of the House of the People for examination before final record.

8. Safe custody and cancellation of mortgage bond. – (1) The mortgage bond shall be kept in the safe custody of the sanctioning authority.

(2) When the advance has been fully repaid, the bond shall be returned to the member concerned, duly cancelled, after obtaining a certificate from the Pay and Accounts Officer of the Council of States or, as the case may be, of the House of the People, as to the complete repayment of the advance and interest.

9. Insurance of conveyance.— The conveyance purchased from the advance shall be insured against full loss by fire, theft and accident and the insurance policy shall contain a clause (as in Form III) by which the insurance company agrees to pay to the Central Government instead of the owner, any sums payable in respect of loss or damage to the conveyance, which is not made good by repair, re-instatement or replacement.
